

FLOORING REVOLUTION

Exquisite Oak Herringbone

Product Description

Luxury comes in all shapes and sizes with our range of engineered wood flooring. Take a look at our Exquisite Oak Herringbone, which will bring a touch of natural charm to many rooms in your home. The classic herringbone style will create a striking look and is sure to become a conversational piece with your guests. Tones of soft, natural brown, and delicate cream hues exude charm and character, whilst the detail of the wood grain and knots offers a traditional and rustic feel. The impressive 18mm thickness offers amazing stability, whilst the 4mm top layer provides added protection and durability helping to provide that much needed peace of mind. Complete with a brushed and UV oiled finish, Exquisite Oak Herringbone showcases an authentic wood appearance while also being able to deal with all aspects of a busy home.
